

....to be outstanding in every aspect, pushing the boundaries of excellence.....

Issue no 12 December 6th 2013

Have you seen the new Julian's website?

You can find us on

www.juliansprimary.org.uk

Visit to the Streatham site

School council visited the Streatham site on Monday afternoon to see building works so far....

What did they think?

It was very muddy~ Ania

I have not been to the Streatham site before and the plans look awesome~

Scarlett

It looks smaller when there is no school~

Luke

They have kept the story telling circle and gardens so it's not totally changed~ Freddie

CHRISTMAS FAIR COMPETITION 2013

Well done  to Cameron in 2M and Chenay in 3C who were the winners of our Christmas fair poster competition. There was a great response to the competition with 37 entries for KS1 and 13 entries for KS2. Entries will be displayed at the Christmas Fair on the 13th December 2013.

By Cameron 2M

By Chenay 3C

Wear Your Own Clothes day – Thursday 12th December 2013

Children will be able to wear their own clothes for the day on Thursday 12th December in return for a contribution to the Christmas fair.

Please bring in either an unwanted but new gift for the children's Christmas gift stall or a bottle for the Tombola - anything from shampoo to champagne!

Members of the PTFA will be in the playgrounds on Thursday morning to collect donations. There will also be boxes in reception for donations throughout the week.

This year we are raising money to buy cookery equipment and to develop the school nature garden and outside space so please get involved!

Christmas Concert at All Saints Church – Saturday 14th December 2013

There will be an afternoon concert on Saturday December 14th at 3pm at All Saints Church, Rosendale/Lovelace Rds in West Dulwich.

It's a Family Concert given by the Lambeth Orchestra of which Christopher Fifield is the Music Director (and has been for 30 years!) The programme is Sleigh Ride, Peter & the Wolf, Young Person's Guide to the Orchestra, three carols for orchestra and audience and the last part of the William Tell overture conducted by children who want to come up and wave the baton for 15 seconds! The music for the overture is repeated until the last child has conducted. The narrator is Ben Abell (Elsie's father).

It promises to be a lively event and on previous occasions letting the children 'have a go' has always proved very popular.

All children have free admittance and adults pay £10. Tickets are selling fast (half have gone). Tickets are either obtainable at the door or by emailing admin@lambeth-orchestra.co.uk stating the number of tickets (adults and children) required together with a name for collection and payment at the door.

CHRISTMAS PERFORMANCES

Tuesday 17th December

KS1 Christmas Performance @ 10am

KS2 Christmas Performance @ 2pm

Wednesday 18th December

Christmas performance for all Reception classes – 10am

Thursday 19th December

Christmas performance for Nursery –
10am/2pm

Parent Gym – ALL WELCOME

There will be a taster session for Parent Gym on Monday 16th December 2013 in the small hall – 9.15-11.15am. Designed and run by experts from Mind Gym, Parent Gym is a 5 week course that gives you the tools to help your children

- Learn faster and do better at school
- Smile, laugh and be happier more of the time
- Do what you say and argue less
- Get on better with their siblings and other kids

It's absolutely free and tea/coffee will be provided. Please come and see what it's all about!

Have a lovely weekend

Alison Moller